

Season's

Study Verse: Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11 ERV There is a right time for everything, and everything on earth will happen at the right time. There is a time to be born and a time to die. There is a time to plant and a time to pull up plants. There is a time to kill and a time to heal. There is a time to destroy and a time to build. There is a time to cry and a time to laugh. There is a time to be sad and a time to dance with joy. There is a time to throw weapons down and a time to pick them up. There is a time to hug someone and a time to stop holding so tightly. There is a time to look for something and a time to consider it lost. There is a time to keep things and a time to throw things away. There is a time to tear cloth and a time to sew it. There is a time to be silent and a time to speak. There is a time to love and a time to hate. There is a time for war and a time for peace. Do people really gain anything from their hard work? I saw all the hard work God gave us to do. God gave us the ability to think about his world, but we can never completely understand everything he does. And yet, he does everything at just the right time.

My Thoughts: Another cold wintery day, after all it is the Season of WINTER.. A time to slow down and restore from the long hot days of summer work and activities.

I love Eccl. 3 It is the best explanation of life. When God created the amazing world we live in, He thought and created everything with a purpose, not just in nature but in our being, our personalities, our talents, our abilities to learn and adapt. God saw that we would experience a lot throughout our life here. His plan was for it to be all beautiful and enjoyable. God was not surprised by the deceit of Satan and the choice that Eve and Adam made, disappointed? Yes, but not surprised. God created seasons for nature because everything needs a time of restorations, Life is hard for all living things, from a blooming weed to the harsh cold winter everything is connected and must work together. My favorite part of Eccl. 3 is verse 11, God gave us the ability to think about his world, but we can never completely understand everything he does. And yet, he does everything at just the right time. We must experience to learn, use wisdom to discern good from evil, to hear and obey God's Holy Spirit, to grow in faith that everything is in God's season and time. Each season must come but, it will always transition into a new season. It may be a cold Winter now, but Spring and restored life is just around the corner. Have faith in the season of today, look for God as you go through, you may find something very beautiful put there at that time just for you.

Until next time, May God bless, heal, protect and grow in you daily. Everyone say, AMEN
