

Are You A Picky Cat?

Study Verse: Psalm 104:21, 107:9, Luke 12:24

Psalm 104:21 God provides meat for the young lions.

Psalm 107:9 God satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

Luke 12:24 God feeds the birds and values us much more than them.

My Thoughts: This morning was a typical morning, Wake, Coffee and feed my little furry babies that God has placed into my care.

Well, apparently I made a bad choice in trying to save a few pennies, according to the response of some of the Cats I provide for did not approve of my froogle choice. They proceeded to look up at me and meow, walking me back to the pantry... I thought you little picky beggar... My next thought was, OH MY GOODNESS, that will preach, so here we are. Are you a picky cat?

How often are begging whinny prayers cried out to God for what is craved for without appreciating what has been graciously provided. Everything that is required to fulfill each need is there, but the spoiled selfish craving cries out. Foolishly walking away from the blessing because it doesn't meet the expectation. WOW!!! Chew on that a minute.. Go ahead and swallow, it may taste bitter but it is going to feed your Spirit. Somedays we are given a rich savory delicious meal and others we must appreciate a plate of vegetables with Brussel Sprouts. Both are good for the body and fulfill a hunger. God will always provide all our needs according to his riches in glory, we must appreciate and enjoy the Brussel Sprouts also.

Until next time, May God bless, heal, protect and grow in you daily.

Everyone say, Amen
