

Lord, What shall I do for you?

Study Verse:

John 12:26, Philippians 2:13, 1 Corinthians 3:9

John 12:26 If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. Philippians 2:13 for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure. 1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

My Thoughts: Do you wake each morning and ask the Lord, What shall I do for you today? So often in our pray time, be it at night before we go to sleep, or break time, first thing in the morning; we naturally pour out our concerns, worries, fear, frustrations, questions, wishes, wants, desires, thanks, gratitude, love, etc., but do we ever stop put away the ME and MINE and ask Lord, What shall I do for you? God is so faithful to hear and give all we need, he is not a selfish Father so why do we act like spoiled selfish children? Today... I ask, Lord, What shall I do for you? I determine in my Spirit to watch and listen for the opportunity to obey His will for me to serve Him. I do not know at the moment what His answer is for the day, it may be this devotional or it could be smiling at each person I meet, helping someone and departing with a may God bless your day. Whatever it is, I make myself available to serve Him.

Until next time, May God bless, heal, protect and grow in you daily.
Everyone say, Amen
