PROVERBS 18:15

Proverbs, It sticks!

Study Verse: Prov. 1:1-7 ETRV

Proverbs 1:1-7

These are the proverbs of Solomon, the son of David and king of Israel. They will help you learn to be wise, to accept correction, and to understand wise sayings. They will teach you to develop your mind in the right way. You will learn to do what is right and to be honest and fair. These proverbs will make even those without education smart. They will teach young people what they need to know and how to use what they have learned. Even the wise could become wiser by listening to these proverbs. They will gain understanding and learn to solve difficult problems. These sayings will help you understand proverbs, stories with hidden meanings, words of the wise, and other difficult sayings. Knowledge begins with fear and respect for the LORD, but stubborn fools hate wisdom and refuse to learn.

My Thoughts: Have I mentioned that I love the book of Proverbs?

Today, I really like the Easy To Read Version. This translation is very simple, and it feels like a letter from my Mama. She always had a way of saying things that even if I didn't want listen, what she had to say, transferred to memory, it stuck. Mama has been gone 3 years now, I hear her words come from my mouth even when I am not trying. Things that just stuck! I have a horrible memory recall with names and I can't quote the bible, but, I know when God speaks to my heart, it sticks. Sometimes, part of or maybe (rarely) a complete scripture comes to my memory and it shocks me, I stop and ask myself, where did that come from (LOL). Even though I struggle with memory recall, the meaning of the scripture always stick. Usually the translation of Gods word, the meaning comes forth, but not the quote..

My "I know that I know" is my guide because that is where things stick. I am going to leave the study verse with you today.. I hope.. It Sticks! If you are adventurous, read the whole chapter later.. It is a good one to go to time and time again..

Until next time, may God bless, heal, protect and grow in you daily, Everyone say, AMEN.
