

(Hillsong Lyrics)

Show me Your ways
That I may walk with You
Show me Your ways
I put my hope in You

The cry of my heart
Is to love You more
To live with the
Touch of Your hand
Stronger each day
Show me Your ways

Show me Your ways
That I may walk with You
Show me Your ways
I put my hope in You

Show Me Your Ways

Study Verse:

Jeremiah 29:13 (Easy to Read Version) You will search for me, and when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me.

I John 5:14-15 (Easy to Read Version) We can come to God with no doubts. This means that when we ask God for things (and those things agree with what God wants for us), God cares about what we say. He listens to us every time we ask him. So we know that he gives us whatever we ask from him.

Ephesians 5:17 (Easy to Read Version) So don't be foolish with your lives, but learn what the Lord wants you to do. .

My Thoughts: Show me your ways that I may walk with you, show me your ways, I put my hope in you. The cry of my heart is to love you more to live with the touch of your hand, Stronger each day, show me your ways. Is this a truthful prayer? Do we really mean these words when we sing this worship song or quote the words in a prayer? Do we truthfully want to know the ways of God for our lives? What is the honest cry of our heart? Is it truthfully for the touch of his hand, to be stronger each day, to be shown His ways, to be obedient to His ways for our lives? Are you sure your cry is for His will rather than what you think is best or benefits your ideals and desires that fit your mold and comforts. We can have great ideas and the best of intentions, most likely believe from God, the question to discern with whole truth is...

Who is honestly glorified and is gains benefit? If you have three fingers pointed back toward you then maybe you need a do over. God is loving, Luke 6:38 NJK, promises ...good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you.”, BUT.. The first part of that verse says...GIVE, and it will be given to you:

You see Gods will is pretty simple.. We were created in HIS image, I believe His will for us is to reflect HIS image. Jesus, Gods only Son, reflected Gods will in every example in the Bible, time and time again. Why would God expect any less from each of us. We pray and cry and beg to know His will.. He has already answered. We must to push our will out of the way (you know the forest behind that tree in front of you). Take a few steps back and evaluate your relationship with God. You should see past the tree and find Gods path through the forest. A stronger relationship with God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit opens the eyes of clarity and heart of understanding. That, I know that I know and the sacrifice isn't really that big feeling.. I have learned from selfish unanswered prayers because I was foolish, but now I pray because it is not about me but what God needs through me. The reward is already on its way, I must simply be available and obey.

Until next time, may God bless, heal, protect and grow in you daily, Everyone say, AMEN.
